

Favorite

Favorite Shape

- Circa: Registered 1886
- Potter(s): W.H. Grindley
- Characteristics: Low-waisted body with rounded panels, slightly bulbous, rope detail on handles and horizontal arch finial, plateau lid, ribbing on lid and from waist to foot

Chelsea

Additions...

At the right and below are photos of seven additional body styles that were on display but which were not included in the Tea Leaf in Three Dimensions slide show.

Members from around the country shared examples of sugar bowl body styles from their collections in this educational program.

Many Panelled Gothic

Chelsea

- 'Circa: 1880's
- Potter(s): Alfred Meakin, Johnson Bros., Wedgwood
- | Characteristics: Cylindrical ovoid body, elliptical arch finial, domed lid, C-Scroll handles, three columns of fluting on each side of the handle terminals

Columbia

Arched Forget-Me-Not

Ring o' Hearts

Grecian Scroll

Blanket Stitch

Embossed