Now we start looking at Tea Leaf "variants" or, as I prefer to call them, copper lustre decorative motifs, shown below and to the right.
