

The Seasons Lodge is a cozy hotel in a quaint location just east of Nashville, IN, in the foothills of the Yellowwood State Forest. The Lodge contains 50 sleeping rooms with several meeting rooms, a public sitting area, a large patio, airy dining room, and rustic bar.

With 40 rooms presently blocked for Tea Leaf Club members, we will be the only convention during the weekend and almost the only guests in the Lodge. Due to the size of our group, we will be using the adjacent Convention Center for the major part of our events. For those who are able, it is a short walk to the Convention Center—maybe shorter than some of the large hotels where we have stayed in the past. For those who might have difficulty walking, there is plenty of parking at the entrance of the facility.

Site Coordinator Dale Abrams has been successful in meeting our target rate of $99 again! The Lodge has standard rooms available at this rate and deluxe rooms at a rate of $119. An on-location inspection finds both types of rooms will meet our needs. The first floor of standard rooms and all deluxe rooms are accessible by an elevator. The second floor of standard rooms are accessible only by stairs. If you need elevator access, be sure to indicate this when making your reservations.

For members with items for table sales, auction consignments, and even those who purchase items during the auction, we have a convenient, secure room in the Convention Center for storage. You can load and unload your boxes right at the door. The room will be manned at specific hours for safety and convenience. Hours will be listed in upcoming Readings, on the At-a-Glance convention schedule card, and in the convention program.

With all this information, what is next? Make your reservation! Reserve your room early, immediately if not sooner! Due to limited availability, it is impossible to guarantee that each person will receive his or her choice; however, the earlier you reserve, the more likely that will happen. So make the call and be sure to mention that you are a TLCI Convention attendee.
